
THOMPSON'S Daily Insurance News Service June 5, 2013

Vancouver-based Kernaghan Adjusters, with branches from coast to coast, has opened a new branch in Red Deer, Alta., serving central Alberta communities including Rocky Mountain House, Olds, Hanna, and Ponoka. Michelle Short has relocated from its Calgary branch to take on the role of Senior Adjuster at the new office. The company said she has over 10 years of experience in the claims adjusting industry. Her experience includes third party bodily injury claims, auto accident benefits, large losses, collision, property claims, and personal and commercial liability claims.